

DELIVERY PEOPLE

Experienced agilists ready to boost your team

Our consultants flex with our customer's needs. We can boost your existing team with Delivery leaders, Iteration Managers, Digital Analysts, Developers and Quality Assurance. We understand what it means to deliver and know that on any given day we might need to wear more than 1 hat in order to delight the customer.

Why is this important?

Utilising customer centric Whiteboard people with experience around the problem can fast track delivery and upskill your existing team. You may want to supplement existing teams or run a second feature team in parallel. Depending on your need we can work with you to establish the best delivery model and team.

What type of services are included?

- Short or longer-term engagement of Individuals or Teams
- Flexible engagement options from 1 week to 6 months and longer
- Time and materials or fixed price engagement
- All whiteboard people are backed by our founders and supported with resources to hit the ground running on day one.

What do I get delivered?

- ✓ Capable, skilled and experienced people ready to work with you to get the outcomes you need.
